

Agile•1 Recognised by MillerCoors as 2013 Service Supplier of the Year

TORRANCE, CA, 12 June, 2014—Agile-1, a global workforce management solutions company, today announced that it has been recognised by MillerCoors as the 2013 Service Supplier of the Year. Mrs. Janice Bryant Howroyd, Founder and CEO of Agile-1, accepted the award at the MillerCoors annual Supplier Recognition Awards ceremony in Chicago, Illinois, on May 27, 2014.

Priding itself on its innovative, workforce solutions, Agile-1 has been a strategic partner of MillerCoors since 2003, providing recruitment process outsourcing (RPO), proprietary software, and a managed services programme (MSP) for MillerCoors' contingent workforce.

"Agile-1's integrated solution drives efficiency by providing us with a single point-of-contact for both contingent and direct-hire talent acquisition. The Total Workforce Solution model they have implemented and branded as DRAFTforce at MillerCoors is unparalleled in the industry," said Jim Sheehy, Vice President of Procurement, MillerCoors. "This award recognises Agile-1's contributions in the areas of quality, service, cost reduction, risk mitigation, corporate responsibility and innovation."

"We are incredibly honoured to receive this recognition," said Peter Carvalho, President of Agile-1. "Our relationship with MillerCoors is successful because of our shared belief that a successful business is built on having the right people working for you. We are proud to be partnering with MillerCoors in such a critical role, providing them with the best strategies and technology that will ensure they have the talent they need, when they need it, to meet their business objectives."
